

MEMBERS CHOSEN FOR THE BOARD

Several Vacancies Filled by Petersburg Council—Why Water Is Bad.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, Petersburg, Va., July 2. The two branches of the City Council, at a joint meeting, re-elected N. O. Martin as a member of the Board of Police Commissioners, and James Weddell as a member of the Board of Fire Commissioners, for a term of three years each. The terms of several members of the School Board also expired on June 30th, and the Rev. Dr. J. S. Foster, pastor of Tabby Street Presbyterian Church; J. R. W. Smith, of the Board of Education; and William L. Zimmar, of the Board of Health, were re-elected to succeed themselves.

The School Board is asking for an appropriation of $75,000 for the purchase of a site and the erection thereon of a large, modern style public High School building, and the Finance Committee is considering the ways and means to provide this money, not having embraced this sum in the general appropriation ordinance for this fiscal year.

Petersburg's bonded debt is $1,400,000, and its fixed annual interest account is $68,475. The city has a sinking fund maturing at this time to over $200,000, which is annually increased by over $16,000. Its rate of taxation is $140 on the $100 of values.

The city expects to continue the policy of public improvement inaugurated several years ago, and for which a large amount of money has been expended.

Cause of Bad Water Condition. In reply to complaints about the bad odor of the water supplied to city customers, the health officer, Dr. R. A. Martin, states that the condition of the water is due to the presence of vegetable growth in the reservoirs and mains. Prompt efforts have been made to correct this condition of affairs by draining and cleaning the high service reservoir, washing out the mains by opening the reservoirs, treating the water with chemicals not injurious to health, but fatal to vegetable growths, and the promise is given that all cause of complaint will soon be removed and the water supply restored to its natural purity.

Beautiful Elks' Plaque. That is a beautiful jeweled gold Elks' badge brought over by the Richmond Elks last night, and presented by Exalted Ruler Lindsay, of Richmond Lodge, to Myer Sall, of Petersburg Lodge, the retiring president of the State Association of Elks. The badge was the offering of the lodges of the State, in token of Mr. Sall's services as president. The speeches of presentation and acceptance and others of fraternal good feeling were in admirable taste. The Petersburg Elks, after the above ceremony, took their departure and Manchester fraters to the Elks' Home, and "treated 'em good."

The visitors came with a band of music, and an abundance of fireworks, with which they illuminated the streets through which they marched. The jewel bears this inscription on the front: "1307 President 1908, Virginia State Association, B. P. O. E." On the reverse: "Presented to Bro. Myer Sall by Va. S. A., B. P. O. E., June, 1908."

"THE PROOFS" FATHER ON TRIAL FOR KILLING SON

Lewis Wingate, Prominent Grayson Man So Charged—Enters Plea of Insanity.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] INDEPENDENCE, VA., July 2.—The Circuit Court of Grayson county is now in special session, Judge Massie having called a special term for the trial of Lewis Wingate, for the alleged murder of his ten-year-old son on the 18th of May.

The crime with which Wingate is charged is the most dastardly and atrocious ever perpetrated in this part of the State. On the 18th of May, Ray Wingate, the ten-year-old son of Lewis Wingate, was buried at the farm of Wingate, near Flatridge, in this county. A few days after his death the Commonwealth's attorney of Grayson, Mr. J. H. Carico, was notified by some of Wingate's neighbors that they suspected foul play, which caused Mr. Carico to set about to make an investigation, from which he found that Wingate had beat, kicked and abused his son only a short time before his death; that he had thrown him in a chest and locked him up so that he could not get anything to eat; that he had put a chain around his leg and chained him to the staircase; that he had thrown him down and pulled out his teeth with a pair of blacksmith's tongs when he found him eating scraps out of the slop bucket.

The body of the boy was exhumed, and Dr. M. O. Fields, the county coroner, held an inquest, and the jury decided that the boy had met death at the hands of his father. Wingate was then arrested and brought to answer an indictment at the June term of the Circuit Court, which convened on June 24. The indictment was made at the June term, but Judge Massie continued the case on account of the sickness of the wife of the defendant, and fixed Tuesday as the beginning of a special term to try it.

Wingate comes from one of the prominent families of Grayson county, his grandfather, Wright Wingate, until he had divided up his property among his children, having been one of the wealthiest men in the county. Lewis Wingate, fourteen years ago, married a Miss Fisher, of Cedar Springs, Wythe county, a lady of cultivation and refinement, and a member of one of the most prominent families in that section. It was, therefore, expected that a large crowd would come to town to attend the trial, and in these expectations no one has been disappointed.

The trial is attracting unusual attention. The defendant will plead insanity, and the distinguished attorneys, Drs. Priddy, of the Southwest Hospital, and Drewry, of the Central Hospital, will be here to testify.

CUT THEIR WAY OUT OF JAIL. White Man and Negro Escape From Clifton Forge Prison.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CLIFTON FORGE, VA., July 2.—This city experienced its first jail delivery just before daylight this morning, when a white man and a negro, both of whom had been in the jail for some time, cut their way out of the steel cells and the concrete walls of the prison, making good their escape. The white man was serving a sentence for car robbery, and it is believed he was aided by those who were implicated with him in breaking open Chesapeake and Ohio freight cars. Several arrests are expected to follow, as the officers have a pretty good idea as to who furnished the prisoners with tools to cut their way out.

Judge Anderson, of the Circuit Court, was notified of the escape at 10 o'clock this morning, and he immediately ordered a search for the escapees. The white man is named John Smith, and the negro is named John Brown. They were both arrested in the city of Richmond, and were taken to the Clifton Forge prison.

A number of policemen were present in anticipation of trouble, but there was no necessity for their services. After stating that he is in possession of evidence which he proposes to lay before the Bishop of Washington in the hope of securing a review of the case, that will startle this city. Mr. Williams said that inasmuch as there is a movement on foot on the part of the clergy and laymen to reopen the case, he would satisfy himself with a brief resume of the case, although he had been requested by them not to hold the meeting.

He declared that the case will not rest until he is vindicated of the accusation. He charged the episcopal court that deposed him was incompetent, and said that he was convicted upon false testimony.

Major General Putnam, U. S. A.

THE hero of Bunker Hill—who first marshaled the Riflemen of the Revolution—and left his plow standing in the furrow to hoist the banner of defiance against legislative oppression! Who has not heard of him?

When others faltered and grew pale, facing fearful odds, this intrepid old Puritan Commander remained strong-hearted, steadfast and true. His tavern, known to fame as the "GENERAL WOLFE," was (in its day) a celebrated meeting place for Revolutionary veterans.

In its cozy bar parlor they delighted to periodically gather and drink with him the foaming juices of the malt; toasting each other in memory of the splendid and heroic days when they gave blood and treasure to found this nation and write the immortal principle of "PERSONAL LIBERTY" in our laws forevermore.

Hale, hearty and generous minded to the last, Israel Putnam died at eighty-three, and what living Prohibitionist dare stand up and say, "I am a purer patriot than he?"
